Handwriting

As per the terms and conditions of the school, your handwriting may be analyzed. Studies have determined that handwriting analysis is a viable, non-discriminatory procedure in understanding an individual's personality. The results can be a valuable tool in identifying potential talents, interests and motivations. Decisions will be made in conjunction with other data observations and process.

By signing the above, I release Mount Hermon School, Darjeeling, its Head and Management of any liability based upon their findings or recommendation.
